

CHIEF OF POLICE PAINFULLY HURT

THROWN FROM HIS CAR
SUNDAY WHILE CHASING
SPEEDING MOTORCYCLIST
—MAN GETS 60 DAYS

Chief of Police John F. Connors was painfully injured Sunday while chasing a man on a motorcycle named Barney Brooks, of Detroit. The chase began near the corner of Washington and Michigan and continued up East Michigan to the residence of C. H. Cain, where he overtook Brooks, who, when Chief Connors started to get out of his car, turned back on Michigan and speeded down Grove street at 50 miles an hour. Chief Connors took after him and was gaining on him when he had to turn out to avoid hitting a horse and buggy near the L. Z. Foerster homestead. His car swerved and went over into some lilac bushes and into a wire fence. Chief Connors sustained a badly lacerated forehead and was bruised up, but no bones were broken.

Deputy Sheriff Elliott happened to be driving with his wife and two small boys, and noticing Chief Connors chasing the man on the motorcycle, turned his car around, only to find the chief unconscious and bleeding. He rushed him to Beyer hospital and called a physician.

Later a young man named Schrader learned that Chief Connors was in the hospital, and he hurried to the hospital and informed the hospital authorities that Brooks had suffered a punctured tire and had stored his machine at a farm house near Ypsilanti. Later Brooks came back to Ypsilanti, where Deputy Sheriff Dick Elliott found him and lodged him in jail.

Monday afternoon Brooks pleaded guilty before Justice Stadtmiller to speeding at 40 miles an hour. He was fined $100, with the alternative of a 60-day sentence in the Detroit house of correction. Tuesday Deputy Sheriff Elliott took Brooks to the house of correction, as he was not able to raise the money. His brother came out Monday evening and took the motorcycle.

Chief Connors was able to be in his office Tuesday afternoon, although he is still lame and suffering from the shock.

Deputy Sheriff Elliott stated Tuesday evening that Brooks has been arrested in Detroit six times for speeding, that he paid fines of $25, $35, $40 and $50 and also served time once.

FAST AUTO PLAYERS HERE FOR TWO GAMES

Next Saturday and Sunday the Auto Workers club of Detroit will meet the Ray Battery boys at the Ray Athletic park. Fans will remember this club and the excellent ball played by them here last year. They were defeated by the Battery boys in the tenth inning, when Rynearson, pitching for the home team, batted out a home run in the ninth, the only score made in the game on either side.

The team this year is even better than last year and promises to take home the bacon. The Battery boys are going fine and it will be some game to see. They have only lost one game this year. If you have not been out to the park this year this will be a good time to go. You will see good ball, besides one of the finest ball parks anywhere in the state. The Ray Battery people have spent a lot of money to give Ypsilanti a first-class ball park and it is only fair that the fans turn out and show their appreciation.

SAYS HE BRANDISHED GUN.

James Jackson last Friday evening, it is alleged, went into the home of Mrs. Hattie Charlton and drew a gun on her, brandishing it in her face and threatening her with it. Saturday morning Mrs. Charlton signed a complaint against Jackson accusing him of carrying concealed weapons. He was arraigned Monday before Justice Stadtmiller and pleaded not guilty. His examination was set for Monday, June 19.

ALLOWED TO GO ON OWN RECOGNITION.

Wm. S. Heck, of Ann Arbor, was arraigned Tuesday before Justice M. B. Stadtmiller on a charge preferred by the Martin Dawson company of obtaining money under false pretense. He pleaded not guilty and his examination was set for June 27. Heck appeared voluntarily without an officer and he was allowed to go upon his own recognition.

A CORRECTION.

In the story in The Record last week announcing the sale of the old Ainsworth property to the Ypsi-Ann Land company of Ann Arbor an error was made in stating that the sale was negotiated by Harkins & Son, of Ann Arbor. It should have read G. W. Hayes and Lee N. Brown, of Ypsilanti. The amount paid for the property was $35,000 for 202 1/2 acres.

RECEPTION HELD FOR MISS HOPKINS.

A reception was held Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. W. Thomas on Forest avenue in honor of Miss Ellen Hopkins, who will be married to Lawrence Thomas on June 24, and also in honor of Miss Ruth Boardman, who will be married on June 29 to De Long Thomas at her home in Sheffield, Mass.

PETER ORLANDO NOW FREE MAN

MONDAY HIS CASE WAS NOL-
PROSSSED IN CIRCUIT COURT
—FACED TWO JURIES.

Monday in the circuit court the case against Peter Orlando, charged with the murder of George Burg at Saline last July, was nolle prossed. Orlando was discharged upon condition that he will return to testify if called upon to do so. On being asked what he intended to do he said: "I shall be lucky if I get to the city limits." He thinks that the relatives of the two men, Sam Mocer and Tony Spino, who were largely convicted on his testimony and are now serving a life sentence in Marquette prison, will get him out of revenge.

In the two trials Orlando has had on the charge of murder he has maintained his innocence, claiming that he was forced to drive the car to the Burg farm at the point of a revolver; that he had no part in the murder. He admitted on the stand that he was there and that he drove the car away from the farm.

The case was hotly fought on both sides. The first trial was called a mistrial on account of evidence found against Wm. H. Jones, a jurymen of Ann Arbor, who it was claimed violated the juror's oath. It is said that action will now be taken by the prosecuting attorney against Jones and that he will be brought into court charged with contempt of court.

In the second trial the jury could not agree. In all eight juries have been called to try this case, and from the fact that it was thought that it would be impossible to get a jury that would convict Orlando he now goes free. Never in the history of the county have so many women and men been called to settle a case.

LIKES. WORK—LIKES TO TRAVEL.

Tuesday as Justice D. Z. Curtiss was leisurely driving his automobile on the highway between this city and his home east of Ypsilanti he noticed a boy about 17 walking down the road. Judge Curtiss likes boys (not having any of his own) and he asked the lad if he wanted a ride. He allowed he did. The judge learned the young man's home was in Massachusetts and that he was on his way to Montana. He stated that he likes to work and he likes to travel. The judge offered him work on his farm but the boy preferred to travel Tuesday.

TWO DRUNKS ARRESTED.

Frank Washington was arraigned Monday before Justice Stadtmiller on a charge of being drunk. He pleaded not guilty and his trial was set for next week Wednesday. Wm. Kugath was also arraigned Monday on a charge of being drunk. He pleaded guilty, told where he got his drinks and was let go on suspended sentence.

LOOK OUT FOR THE FAKE MOTOR COP

Col. Roy C. Vandercook, head of the state department of public safety, is sending out warnings over the state calling attention to the practice of certain motorcycle riders, representing themselves to be members of the Michigan state police, who are stopping speedsters and collecting anywhere from $10 to $50 bond money. He says that this practice must stop.

In the future the state police have been instructed to stop the speeder, take the car license number and the name and number on the driver's license, and instruct them to appear in court at a certain time. Failure of the speeder to do this will result in a warrant being served upon him, and he will be forced to pay the additional costs of the prosecution.

"No auto driver should give any member of the state department of public safety money as bail for speeding," said Col. Vandercook. "If a speeder is stopped by a motorcycle man who represents himself as a member of our department and asks for a cash bail he should not pay it, but report the occurrence at once to one of our posts or to the Lansing office."

REV. IDLE DELIVERS BACCALAUREATE SERMON

Sunday evening the Ypsilanti high school and the Normal high listened to a fine baccalaureate sermon given by Rev. Dunning Idle, of the Methodist church. The services were conducted in the Methodist church and is the first time that the two high schools have ever united in this service.

In the two schools there are 109 graduates and with the faculty members and their friends taxed the capacity of the church.

Rev. Idle took for his subject, "Put on the New Man that After God Hath Been Created in Righteousness and Holiness of Truth."

ROTARY AND KIWANIS AT COUNTRY CLUB

At the Rotary dinner Monday as the speaker who was to have addressed the Rotarians did not appear, Rotarian McAndrew was called upon to give a biography of his life. In a humorous way he told of the interesting things that had happened to him that was highly pleasing to those in attendance.

Next Monday there will be no noonday luncheon at the clubrooms, but the Rotarians will meet at the Country club in the evening for their dinner with Kiwanis. This is the date of the annual golf tournament between the two clubs for the silver cup as a trophy. Those who play golf and others who wish to go will go to the golf ground in the afternoon.

Wm. McAndrew, of New York city, will deliver the address after the banquet in the evening. Other entertainment will also be provided.

FAKE MOTOR COP GETS $10 FROM LOCAL MAN

The fake motor cop who has been operating on the road between Ann Arbor and Jackson put his slick little game over on our fellow townsman, L. W. Strong, and collected $10. Mr. Strong was returning from Jackson, and when just this side of Grass Lake he was stopped by what he supposed was a real cop, who claimed that he was exceeding the speed law. He claimed that Mr. Strong was making 41 miles an hour, which was denied. He cited him to appear before a justice of the peace in Jackson and collected the ten, giving a receipt signed Edwin C. Couch.

Last Saturday Owen Cleary was stopped at about the same place and presumably the same fellow, who tried to work him for a ten spot. Cleary told him that he did not have that much money with him and he was let go on the promise that he would appear in Jackson this week Friday. He forgot to tell him what justice to appear before. On comparing notes with Mr. Strong the same line of talk was used in both instances.

SMALL SUNDAY FIRE ON CROSS STREET.

Sunday fire did slight damage to the building at 54 East Cross street, owned by Charles Brewer, of Pontiac. The fire was discovered on the second floor and the department soon got it under control with chemicals.

MAKES SPEECH AT ROTARY CONVENTION.

H. E. Van de Walker, who is in attendance at the International Rotary congress in Los Angeles, was featured in the papers of that city as one of the speakers. "Van," as he is known around his home town by his many friends, is national chairman of the boys' work division.

Mrs. Margaret Wallace has gone to Chicago to visit relatives for a few weeks.

UNITE IN CONDUCTING SUMMER BIBLE SCHOOL

The Presbyterian, Methodist, Congregational, Baptist and Episcopal churches will unite in conducting a summer Bible school this summer. Mrs. Harold Chadwick will be principal. Classes will be held each day from 9 o'clock to 12 o'clock. Pupils will be admitted between the ages of five and fourteen years. There will be no school on Saturdays and Sundays. It is expected that between 200 and 300 will be in attendance.

Last year Rev. Carl Elliott, of the Presbyterian church, started the movement for the first time in Ypsilanti and 154 pupils were enrolled. This year teachers will be selected from the different churches.

ASHTON-BLOCK WEDDING SATURDAY AFTERNOON

Saturday afternoon at the parsonage of the Catholic church occurred the marriage of Miss Elsa Ashton and Edward H. Block, Rev. Father Needham officiating. After the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served at the Ashton home on Arcade street.

In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Block left for Detroit, where they will spend a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Ashton, returning to Ypsilanti June 16, where they will be at home to their friends at 207 Arcade street.

LARGE AUDIENCE HEAR LESSON IN FRIENDSHIP

The Lesson of Friendship presented by the Knights of Pythias Friday night at the Wuerth theatre was greeted by a large and appreciative audience. The leading parts were taken by James F. Hart, George Bursha, Ray H. Burrell and Mark Rust. Their work on the stage was fine and the Lesson of Friendship, brought out in the story of Damon and Pythias, will leave a lasting impression on those who were fortunate enough to be present, by the wonderful interpretation of these men. The play was under the personal direction of D. L. Quirk, Jr.

On the program also appeared Miss Helen Foster in toe dancing; little Miss Ernestine Goodwin in a violin number; Miss Emily Mutter, 15-year-old violinist, of Howell, gave several fine selections on the violin, and two professional acts from the Temple theatre in Detroit.

Too much credit cannot be given to all who took part. It was one of the cleanest and high-class entertainments ever seen in Ypsilanti.

RAY COTTON BUYS PARTNER'S INTEREST

The shoe firm of Minniss & Cotton has been dissolved. Mr. Frank Minniss retiring. Mr. Ray E. Cotton will carry on the business in the future.

The firm of Minniss & Cotton was launched two years ago the first of this August, when they purchased the business of the late Edward Leas. Both the young men were well known in Ypsilanti and from the first did a fine business.

Mr. Minniss so far has made no plans for the future and for the present will remain in Ypsilanti.

Mr. Cotton is too well known by Ypsilanti people to need an introduction and so far as the future of the business is concerned will go right along selling high grade shoes and giving the same courteous treatment that this store is noted for. The Record wishes Mr. Cotton the best of success.

ALEX. NULAN.

The face in this picture needs no introduction to our readers, but we cannot pass it by without saying that it is our genial friend, Alex. Nulan, and that he can be seen any day at his fine new hardware, recently opened at 26 North Washington street.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Deyo spent Sunday with Walter Schlicht and wife in Denton.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS HOLD MEMORIAL.

CHELSEA JUBILANT OVER SECURING YPSI CONCERN

The following, taken from the Chelsea Standard of June 8, no doubt will be of interest to Ypsilanti readers. The heading of the article reads: "Chelsea on the Boom—New Factory Assured."

"The Standard received information from reliable sources this morning that the deal that has been pending for several weeks between the Lewis Spring and Axle company and the Guy Disc Valve Motor corporation, of Delaware, was closed Tuesday.

"The Guy Disc Valve Motor corporation is capitalized for $1,500,000 and prominent automobile manufacturers are stockholders and members of the board of directors. The company will manufacture taxicabs for New York and Chicago companies and undoubtedly will give employment to a large force of skilled mechanics and laborers.

"The deal includes the Welfare building, the foundry, No. 8 building and the power plant.

"The new company will undoubtedly begin moving their machinery here from Ypsilanti at once and begin operations as soon as possible."

LITTLE WARREN BROOKS IN- JURED.

The little five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Brooks, of North Huron street, was quite seriously injured by being run over by an automobile Sunday. The family had gone to Belle Isle for a day's outing and as they were eating lunch the little fellow eluded his parents for a moment and ran out into the driveway. In dodging one auto he was struck by an auto coming from the opposite direction. He was rushed to Receiving hospital and later taken to Skinner's hospital, where an X-ray was taken to determine the extent of his injuries. He was brought to his home the same evening and is getting along as well as could be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Painter, of Ann Arbor, visited with Mrs. Painter's sister in Millersburg, Ohio, over Sunday of last week. They made the trip by auto.

Comfort shoes have earned their place with the woman of fashion

COMFORT first! In the wide acceptance of this fine modern idea, none has been more forward than the social leader.

To her, particularly, ordinary footwear has meant style tyranny.

So she has welcomed this new trend in better shoe design. The relaxation, the buoyant restfulness of Martha Washington Comfort Shoes have earned from her instant, whole-hearted appreciation. And the easy gracefulness of design, has found added approval.

Women everywhere wear them. This is the shoe for instant, grateful relief, to over-taxed feet. It is distinctly presentable in appearance—its good looks need no apology to the unexpected visitor.

To the City Clerk of the City of Ypsilanti.

Please Take Notice, That on the 20th day of May, A. D. 1922, there was filed with me as County Drain Commissioner of the County of Washtenaw an application signed by O. S. Sturtevant, Susie Sturtevant, Robert Renton, Mary L. Renton, Hartford Taylor (Nellie Taylor, Roy Casler, E. H. Casler, and others for the locating and establishing of a certain drain, which will traverse your township and the City of Ypsilanti, and a reference being made to the copy of said application hereto attached for a more particular description thereof, filed in the city clerk's office.

Therefore, you and the clerk of the city above mentioned, will call a meeting for a joint meeting of the Township Board of said Township and the City Council of the City of Ypsilanti, to be held on such date as may be suitable at the City Hall in the City of Ypsilanti, which is hereby designated by me as the place of said meeting, for the purpose of determining the necessity of said drain and whether the same is necessary and conducive to public health, convenience and welfare, giving and publishing such notice thereof as is provided by statute in such case made and provided.

Dated this 24th day of May, A. D. 1922.

CLAYTON E. DEAKE,
County Drain Commissioner of the County of Washtenaw.

Further, the City Clerk is hereby instructed to give notice of said joint meeting.

Carried.
In an oral address to the Council, County Drain Commissioner Deake, called attention that steps could be taken by the City of Ypsilanti, and Ypsilanti Township for a county drain in the vicinity of West Cross Street where paving improvements are contemplated by the city in said street. Mr. H. C. Holmes,
City Clerk,
Ypsilanti, Michigan

Dear Sir: We are enclosing copy of a letter from our Attorneys with reference to the Ypsilanti Paving Bonds.

You will notice that they refuse to approve this issue of bonds, and state the reasons in their communication to us.

We are very sorry indeed that this unfortunate circumstance has arisen, but in view of it will be unable to go through with out contract for the purchase of the bonds, and will appreciate your returning our certified check as soon as possible.

We trust that the City will be able to remedy this defect so that the bonds will be issued again within a short time, and we will be pleased to submit a bid when they are re-advertised.

Very truly yours,
HENRY HART,
Manager Municipal Department.
(Copy)

Detroit Trust Company,
Detroit, Mich.

Gentlemen: Re: Ypsilanti Paving Bonds.

Section 24 of the charter as contained in the Local Act, consisted of three paragraphs; the first providing for bridge, fire department and sewer bonds, the second, for paving bonds, and the third prohibiting sale of bonds below par.

The charter amendment adopted April 5, 1920, as it appeared on the ballot, contained only one paragraph relating to bridge, fire department and sewer bonds. The revision submitted was: "Shall Section 24 of the charter of the City of Ypsilanti be amended so as to be in the following form?" The adoption of this amendment, although probably intended to amend only the first paragraph, had the effect of repealing the second and third paragraphs. There is, therefore, now no authority in the charter for the issue of paving bonds, and we are unable to approve the bonds now submitted.

Yours very truly,
MILLER, CANFIELD, PADDOCK & PERRY, By John C. Spaulding (Signed)

By Ald. Max—
That the communication be received and filed and clerk instructed to return check.

Carried.

By Alderman Lathers—
Resolved: That the City Attorney be instructed to redraft section 24 of the charter as amended, also advise the council at what time proposed amendment to section 24 may be submitted to a vote of the people, and to report back at next meeting of the council.

Carried.

To the Honorable Mayor and Common Council, City of Ypsilanti, Ypsilanti, Michigan.

Gentlemen: I am instructed, by action of our Board of Directors, at their meeting held this morning, to present for your consideration the establishment of a Tourist Camp

Service. There is a very considerable demand for this type of accommodation and it will be at its height during the coming three months.

May we ask that this matter be worked out by the Park Board and Chief of Police and you may be assured that any co-operation we are able to give is at your disposal.

Respectfully submitted,
YPSILANTI
BOARD OF COMMERCE
By OLIN C. ECKLEY,
Managing Secretary.

By Ald. Horner—
That the matter be referred to the Park Board and Chief of Police to report back at next meeting of the Council.

Carried.

Ypsilanti, Mich., June 5, 1922.
The Honorable Mayor and Common Council of Ypsilanti.

We petition your honorable body to take immediate action on the installation of the improvements of sewer, water and gas on the property known as Ainsworth Park, a matter which has already been before you and has been voted upon in the past. We wish to state that these improvements are not being asked for the purpose of assisting in a stock selling campaign nor to help in selling vacant property but to enable us to engage in a bona-fide building business. May we call attention to the fact that we expect to spend a great deal of money not only this year but in the years to come. That the greater part of this will be in the form of outside capital—building loans—which have already been arranged for. That work will be continued right into the cold weather when there has always been considerable unemployment in Ypsilanti, and that these houses will be a credit to this or to any city and will be sold at reasonable prices and on easy terms.

The company is now ready for commencing the first four houses, one of which will be occupied by Mr. Hanchette, one of the members of the Company, who intends to become a permanent resident of this City while the others are for local people. We do not ask for improvements, however, so that we may start work, but we do ask you, if, when we have shown you by actual construction work that we are going ahead with the work as planned, may we depend on the City doing its part in providing us with the necessary conveniences.

Very respectfully,
THE AINSWORTH PARK
REALTY COMPANY,
Per FRANK A. SAUNDERS.

By Ald. Max—
That the Communication be received and filed and referred to the Commissioners of Public Works to report back at next meeting of the Council.

Carried.

AUTO MIXUP CAUSES EXCITEMENT AT WIARDS

Some excitement was caused Sunday afternoon when an auto driven by Walter Khuen skidded into a car owned by Lester Dusseldorf, of Detroit, on East Michigan avenue. The impact caused the Dusseldorf car to collide with a coupe in which were two women. All three cars were damaged.

One of the women in the coupe attacked Khuen, jerking his watch out of his pocket. Immediately the cries of "pickpocket" and "holdup" were given by the crowd, and for a moment excitement ran high. Officer Schnepf, of Ward's corners, soon appeared on the scene and took the parties concerned before Justice Curtiss. They were told to come back Tuesday, which they did, and Khuen paid $140 to cover damage of the cars.

PAYFINE OF $50 FOR BEING FOUND DRUNK

A young man giving his name as Charles Serene (?) and claiming to be an Ann Arbor student, was found on the tracks of the interurban near the Stone schoolhouse Tuesday night underneath his car, which he had evidently lost control of. Fortunately for Mr. Serene (?) Lewis Golden, of this city, happened along and saw the car. He ran back and stopped the interurban, which was due, and with the assistance of passengers turned the over and found Mr. Serene (?) serenely drunk.

He was brought to Ypsilanti and placed in jail. Wednesday morning he was taken before Justice Curtiss and fined $50. Sentence was suspended during good behavior. The car he was driving bore a Canadian license.

Before Justice Curtiss he demanded examination and his trial was set for the 21st. He was placed under $1,000 bonds, which he failed to produce.

Among those who have his checks are the Ypsilanti Press, Saline Milling company, Ypsilanti Fruit company and several Ann Arbor concerns.

GRACE MILLER WHITE

When this talented authoress wrote "Tess of the Storm Country," she made an entry straight into the hearts of millions of people. Our best known screen actress, the one who has received the most publicity and amassed the greatest wealth, was set upon the road to fame and fortune by the moving picture version of the story.

"Tess" has been followed by a number of stories all dealing with a similar environment and types, and all very captivating to popular fancy. The latest of these, "Storm Country Polly," we are privileged to offer to our readers as a serial. Polly actually rivals Tess in charm and sympathetic appeal. You cannot fail to be interested in her and the other characters of the tale.

STORIES OF GREAT INDIANS

By Elmo Scott Watson

PHILIP OF POKANOKET, "TER- ROR OF NEW ENGLAND"

SHOULD the apologist for the Indian try to justify the red man's cruelty by citing cases of white barbarity, he need only refer to the case of King Philip of Pokanoket, chief of the Wampanoags. When he was killed the colonists treated his body as though it were the carcass of a wild beast. They beheaded and quartered him. They exhibited the head on a gibbet at Plymouth for 20 years and they nailed the quarters on trees. One of his hands, mutilated by a bursting pistol, was given to Alderman, his slayer.

King Philip (Metacombet) was the second son of friendly old Massasoit but he had no love for the white men. He saw that unless their expansion was stopped his own race was doomed. So he began uniting the tribes of New England against them. The colonists suspected that he was preparing for war but he succeeded in deceiving them until June, 1675, when his warriors, contrary to his orders, attacked Swansea, Mass. Concealment being no longer possible, Philip plunged into the conflict with savage fury. The next three months his warriors and their allies, the Narragansetts, destroyed 12 of the 90 towns in New England.

The "Terror of New England" reached the peak of his career at the Battle of Bloody Brook near Deerfield where he killed 90 colonists. After that the star of the Wampanoag began to wane. Wetamoo, his sister-in-law, the "Saw Sachem of Pocasset," who had led 300 warriors into the field to aid Philip, was killed by the colonists who cut off her head and set it up on a pole at Taunton, Mass. Then the chief's wife and son were captured and sold into slavery in the West Indies. "My heart breaks now. I am ready to die," said the great chief.

By now he, with only a few faithful followers, was fleeing from place to place like a hunted wild animal. One of his warriors suggested surrender and Philip instantly killed him with one blow of his tomahawk. Alderman, the slain warrior's brother, immediately deserted to the English and offered to lead Captain Church to Philip's hiding place.

On August 12, 1676, the English surrounded the swamp where the Wampanoag had taken refuge. As they closed in they sighted their quarry speeding along a path, one of the few avenues of escape from the swamp. Suddenly Alderman rose up before the fleeing chief. He fired and King Philip fell with two wounds in his breast. Alderman's gun had been double charged—one bullet for his brother and one for himself!

JOSEPH BRANT, WHO WAS PRE- SENTED AT COURT

CAMPBELL was a better poet than historian. For Joseph Brant (Thayendanege—"He Places Together Two Belts"), chief of the Mohawks, had no part in the famous Wyoming valley massacre in Pennsylvania in 1778, although he did lead the Indians at two others equally bad—Minisink and Cherry valley.

Through the friendship of Sir William Johnson, young Thayendanege was sent to Dr. Eleazer Wheelock's school in Connecticut. He returned to Johnson hall and became Sir William's assistant and interpreter.

At the outbreak of the Revolution the Iroquois were wavering between joining the British and the Americans. Doctor Wheelock wrote to his former pupil, presenting every argument in favor of the Americans. "I will remember the days in your home," replied Brant, "And especially do I remember the family prayers and how you prayed that we might live as good subjects to fear God and honor the king!"

Brant went to England in 1775. He was presented to the king and, although he wore the costume of his people, his gracious manners and perfect English made him a favorite in court circles. Before he left London, he had promised to lead 3,000 warriors into the field under the British flag.

Although his name became a word of terror along the New York frontier, he was not wholly merciless. Once he captured an old friend named Vroman, whom he sent into the woods to get some birchbark, hoping that he would escape. A few hours later Vroman returned with the bark—which Brant did not want. "You had a chance to escape, but you were too big a fool to take it. So now I shall have to take you to Canada as a prisoner," exclaimed the Mohawk chief with much disgust.

After the Revolution ended Brant remained in Canada, where he was granted a pension by the British and given a large estate in Ontario. Here he held "barbaric court with a retinue of 30 negro servants, surrounded by gay soldiers, cavaliers in powdered wigs and all the motley assemblage of that picturesque era," and here he died November 24, 1807.

CHIEF LOGAN, THE CAYUGA; HIS IMMORTAL SPEECH

"I APPEAL to any white man to say if ever he entered Logan's cabin hungry and he gave him not meat; if ever he came cold and naked and he clothed him not? During the course of the last long and bloody war, Logan remained idle in his camp, an advocate for peace. Such was my love for the whites that my countrymen pointed as I passed and said, 'Logan is the friend of the white man.' I had even thought to have lived with you but for the injuries of one man.

"Colonel Cresap, the last spring, in cold blood and unprovoked, murdered all the relations of Logan, not even sparing my women and children. There runs not a drop of my blood in the veins of any living creature. This called on me for revenge. I have sought it. I have killed many. I have fully glutted my vengeance. For my country I rejoice at the beams of peace; but do not harbor a thought that mine is the joy of fear. Logan never felt fear. He will not turn on his heel to save his life. Who is there to mourn for Logan? Not one!"

What American has not at some time in his school career recited from his reader that speech, not realizing the historical inaccuracy of some of the statements nor the fact that the chief was doing a great injustice to Col. Michael Cresap, a daring borderer and a brave officer of the Virginia riflemen during the Revolution? For the man who was guilty of the murder was Daniel Greathouse, a dissolute trader.

But even such errors in fact cannot detract from the greatness of the speech and of the man, nor from the tragedy of his life. For Logan (Tah-gah-jute—literally: "His Eyeslashes Stick Out"; figuratively: "Spying") was unwavering in his friendship to the whites until the massacre of his people in 1770 sent him on the war-path, raging like a wild animal. He was the leading figure in Lord Dunmore's war, one of the bloodiest in frontier history.

Occasionally his better instincts prevailed during that war. Once he saved the life of Simon Kenton, the famous scout, when Kenton's old friend, Simon Girty, the "white renegade," had failed.

He had been an intemperate drinker before the Greathouse murder. After that he became an utter sot, which only added to his cruelty. In 1780 his nephew killed him during a drunken brawl. His wife survived him, but there were no children. So his mournful statement, "there runs not a drop of my blood in the veins of any living creature," was true to the last.

Fear is man's greatest enemy. And love is man's greatest friend.

When a woman's love fights in a man's soul with the physical cowardice that has always ruled his life—which will win?

The answer is told in this sparkling comedy-drama of New York's East Side and the Western Bad Lands—and told in a manner which will hold you spellbound. Raymond Hatton plays the coward who found himself.

Fordson TRACTOR

"Yes I've more Time for Myself Since I Got a

Fordson"

The Fordson Tractor is taking much of the drudgery out of farm life; it is solving the labor problem; it is reducing the cost of preparing land by almost one half of what it was with horses; and it is saving one third to one half of the farmer's time; and making farm life more attractive.

The Fordson will run your threshing machine—and at the most opportune time for you. It will operate the milking machines, saw your wood, fill your silo, pump the water, and take care of every kind of belt work—

And don't forget—it will plow six to eight acres in a ten hour day, handling two plows with ease.

Thus the Fordson is the ideal year-round tractor. It will pay for its fall and winter keep in many ways.

There's a big story to tell you about the Fordson—and a true one—come in and get the facts. Or, if you prefer, telephone or drop us a card and we will bring them to you.

Fordson TRACTOR

The Fordson Tractor is taking much of the drudgery out of farm life; it is solving the labor problem; it is reducing the cost of preparing land by almost one half of what it was with horses; and it is saving one third to one half of the farmer's time; and making farm life more attractive.

The Fordson will run your threshing machine—and at the most opportune time for you. It will operate the milking machines, saw your wood, fill your silo, pump the water, and take care of every kind of belt work—

And don't forget—it will plow six to eight acres in a ten hour day, handling two plows with ease.

Thus the Fordson is the ideal year-round tractor. It will pay for its fall and winter keep in many ways.

There's a big story to tell you about the Fordson—and a true one—come in and get the facts. Or, if you prefer, telephone or drop us a card and we will bring them to you.

Error Concerning Peanuts.

The erroneous idea that eating peanuts will affect the growth of hair may have arisen from the fact that hair, wool, feathers, and similar animal tissues, when analyzed, show a relatively large amount of cystine, which is one of the amino acids present in protein. Even were the assumption true that by eating foods containing cystine the growth of hair could be stimulated, it would not apply in the case of peanuts, which do not contain as high a percentage of cystine as many other common foods.

Sound Philosophy.

DODGE BROTHERS
BUILD NEW COUPE

Behind the simple phraseology of an announcement which Dodge Brothers, Detroit automobile manufacturers, are publishing today in every important city and town in America lies the story of a new achievement in automobile development. "Dodge Brothers announce a business coupe; conservative changes in the body design of all other types," the advertisement reads.

The business coupe is the first all-steel closed car ever marketed. In this respect it takes a new and distinct place in automotive history, for it involves an entirely unique principle of coupe body construction. The steel body not only practically eliminates the problem of limited production, due to the tedious and costly individual workmanship required on wood bodies, but also enables the manufacturers to give the coupe the same lustrous baked enamel finish which has already contributed so much to the reputation of Dodge Brothers open cars. This process in itself will also facilitate quantity production, as an enormous amount of time was consumed heretofore in applying the numerous coats of paint required on wood.

Naturally, these are important factors in the determination of the selling price, resulting in economies which Dodge Brothers are passing directly to the purchaser. "Wood is practically eliminated from the construction of this car," said Mr. Thompson, the local dealer. "Even the framework and panels are of steel, and the natural result is a lighter, quieter and more durable car. Steel prolongs life and reduces the possibility of squeaks and rattles."

"The business men of America have been expecting such a coupe and Dodge Brothers have given it to them."

"It is really a coupe at a roadster price. While it is easily attractive enough for any use, it is particularly designed for the business man—who needs the comfort and protection of a closed car in his work, but who can easily get along without a few of the luxuries which, in the past, have made the closed car so expensive. The business coupe is built inside and out to withstand the wear and tear of everyday use—and yet it retains the same lightness and beauty of line which everyone is accustomed to look for in Dodge Brothers closed cars. It lacks only what I might term the depreciation liabilities of the more expensive coupe. It is upholstered in genuine leather, has a wide, comfortable straight seat, is equipped with cord tires, heater, dome light, windshield cleaner and adjustments for raising and lowering windows. The doors are unusually wide and are fitted with new easy closing Yale locks. There is more than the usual amount of leg room and convenient and spacious luggage compartments are provided. Doctors, real estate men and salesmen of all kinds will find it just the car they need. We already have good indications of a tremendous demand."

"The change of design in the other Dodge Brothers cars indicates that while Dodge Brothers have always adhered closely to the practical they are also progressive and abreast of the time. It is Dodge Brothers policy to make improvements year after year and month after month and this is simply another step forward."

TANK EXPLODES AND BURNS TRUCK.

The large fruit truck of Frank Pistoria, which plies between this city and Detroit, was burned in Wayne Monday morning. The driver, Murray Gibson, had stopped there for gas, not knowing that the tank was filled by Mr. Pistoria. As they attempted to put in more gas the tank overflowed, causing an explosion, which set fire to the truck, burning everything burnable and did considerable damage to the engine. Gibson was out of the truck at the time and escaped injury.

The many different activities of summer demand a variety of different frocks. For parties and for daintier wear milady will want attractive organdies or voiles in delicate or bright hues. For everyday wear there are cool, practical lines, gingham, prints and crepes. Sports the country club will demand a smart outfit of Roshanara crepe or ratine in the brighter colors. Tub skirts with the ever-popular sweaters and lingerie blouses are a real necessity to the well dressed lady. These are particularly attractive this season in both silks and cotton.
